

XV

TODAY

It's not chlorine that makes your eyes red in a swimming pool - it's the pee in the pool that it's bonding with...

Thomas Vose, 1/3/22

-Arthur Schopenhauer

"The man who comes into the world with the notion that he is really going to instruct in matters of the highest importance may thank his stars if he escapes with a whole skin."

The first cereal box prize was a book! (You had to send away for it.)

Kellogg's introduced the promotion in 1909.

The book was

"Funny Jungleland" Moving Pictures, a picture book of animals.

Ding Baozhen, Governor of Sichuan Province, became known for serving a spicy chicken dish at functions. It became known as "the governor's chicken". In Chinese, "governor" is "Kung pao". 宫保鸡丁

the "seax."

The Saxons got their name from the weapon they used:

The grasshopper mouse

- Lives in the South-west
- Howls at the moon
- Steals nests from other rodents
- Eats scorpions

Yellowstone isn't the only park above a supervolcano - Mammoth, in California, sits atop the Long Valley Caldera.

